Under the program 'NEP 2020 Week Celebration' on 4th August 2023 the department of B.V.A. of Drawing and Painting of SNDT College of Arts and SCB college of Commerce and Science for Women organized a talk and interaction session for which Ms. Shikha Pandey alumni of BVA department was invited to talk about 'Art and Literature an Interdisciplinary Approach'.

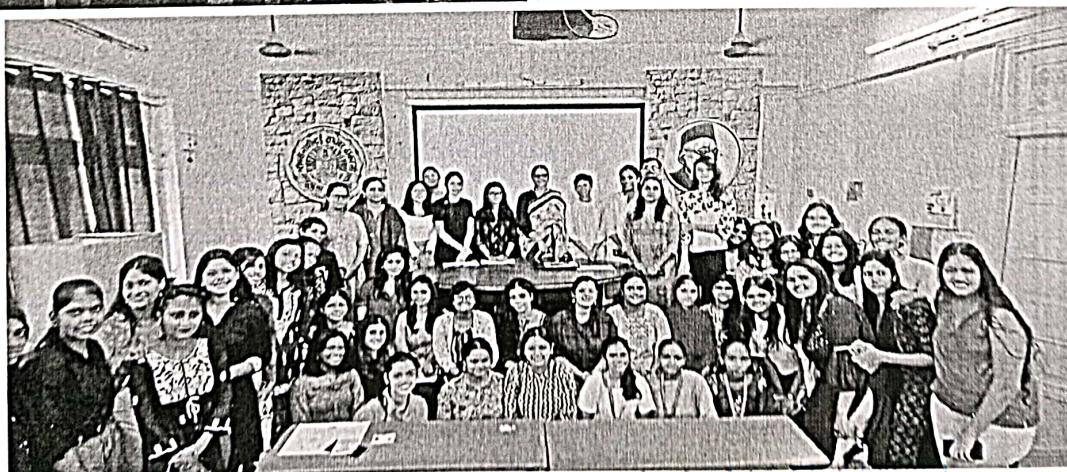

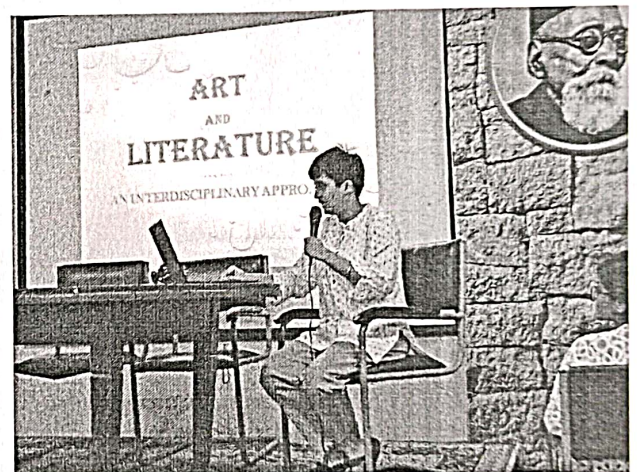

All the students and teachers from BVA and language departments of the college were present for the same. BVA HOD Dr. MeeraSawant gave the introduction of the program and also of Ms. Shikha Pandey who had been a very sincere student of the department during her association with college as a student.

Principal Dr. Vandana Sharma underlined the importance of Interdisciplinary Approach in the NEP 2020 and also appreciated Shikha Pandey's talent and understanding of Hindi poetry.

Ms. Shikha explained how all the fine arts and literature are interrelated and enhance the beauty of each other by blending in with each other. She also said that reading is very important to grow as an artist and how it helped her to develop her paintings.

Feedback of the students and teachers was very positive. Students felt the main benefit of this session is that they got a new approach to look at visual art which will definitely help them to grow as a versatile artist. At the end of the program Prof. Suresh Garud delivered a vote of thanks to everyone present for the program. Total 10 teachers and 45 students from BVA and language departments were present for the program.
