THE MOVIE 'Samvidhan' SCREENING ON THE 30/11/2023

The event started with a warm welcome and a brief introduction of the event done by Twisha Trivedi. The importance and the purpose of celebrating the India's constitution day was also discussed in the brief introduction. Principal Dr. Vandana Sharma; the programme officers of the NSS: Dr Lata Chavan and Suhas Chavan; the faculty members of the college, the co-ordinators of the event and Mrs. Chitra Lele were present for the screening. The total number of attendees was 37. Principal madam recited the Preamble of India in hindi and Niyati Wadkar- one of our co-ordinators of the program, recited the Preamble of India in english.

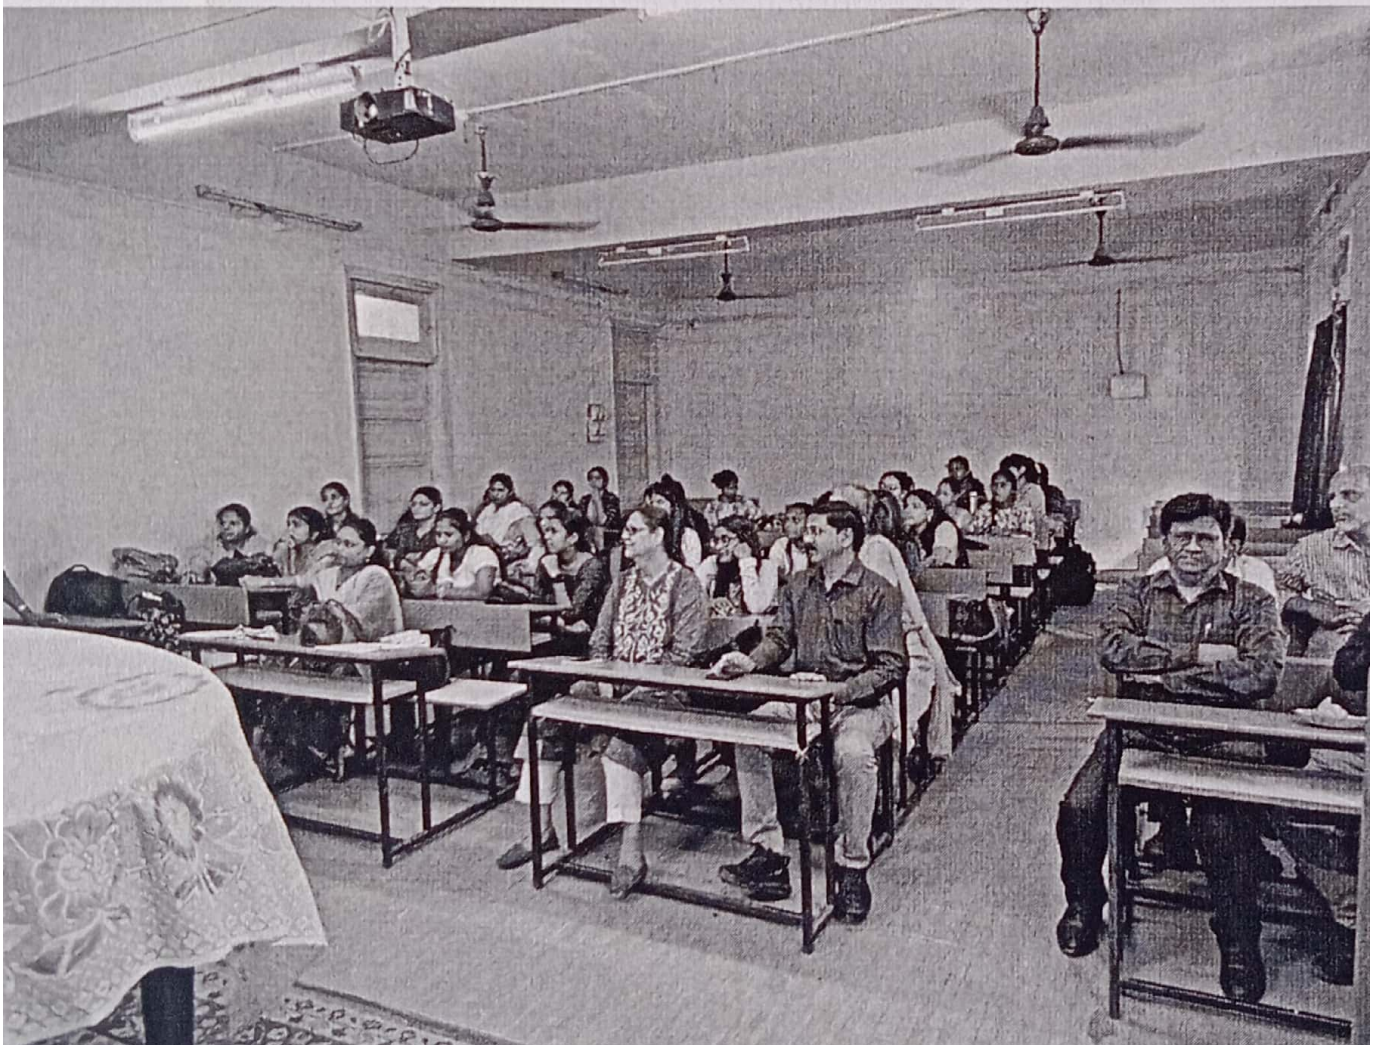

Aditi Nate, one of the co-ordinators of the program talked briefly about the short movie that was going to be screened and the makers' purpose behind making this episode of the long series. The episode that was screened was episode 3- "Independent India: Righting Fundamental Wrongs with Fundamental Rights." The episode showcases the procedure of making and drafting the constitution by the drafting committee. It shows how tedious and discursive the procedure was. The episode also highlights Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's worthwhile contribution in determining the citizens' fundamental rights. Dr. Lata Chavan and Mr. Suhas Chavan, the programme officers of the NSS very kindly distributed tasty snacks to the attendees.

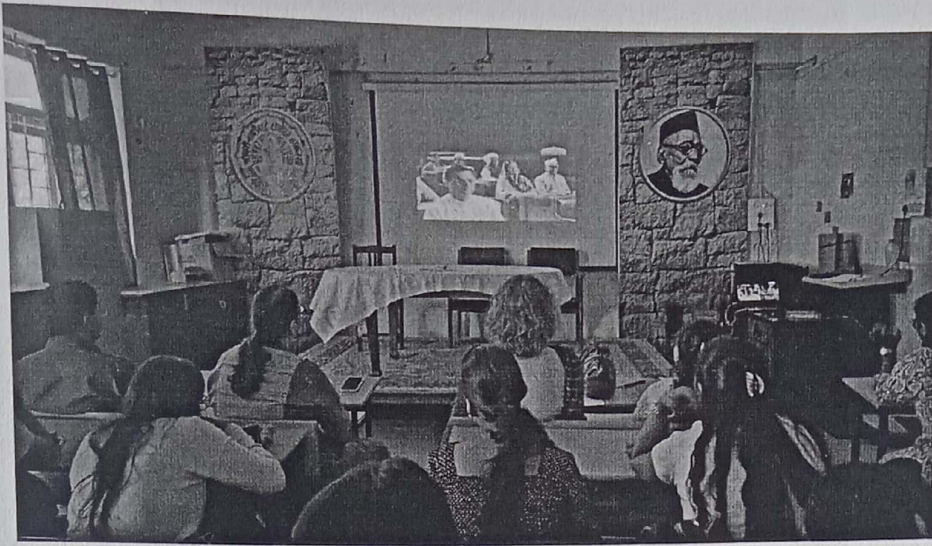

After the episode ended, Mrs. Chitra Lele discussed with the students and the faculty members present, the nuances and the intricacies of the actual procedure of drafting the constitution of India, which is the longest written document ever produced. She also motivated the students to watch all ten episodes of Sanvidhan produced by Shyam Benegal in association and collaboration with Rajya Sabha TV. The program ended with all the attendees being photographed to commemorate the program and also, constitution day.

For google quiz on constitution of India 128 entries were recorded. For film screening 28 students and around 7 faculty members attended
